

GRIGORY DEGTYAREV, doctor of Economics (“Economics of the social sphere”), Ph. D. (“applied sociology”), Leading Research Fellow, Semashko National Research Institute of Public Health

Graduated from the Faculty of Management and Applied Mathematics of the Moscow Institute of Physics and Technology. He has a long-term experience of research and expert activities. He coordinated a number of international projects devoted to diverse social problems (financed by the ReformUgol Fund, the Russian Fund for Social Reforms), provided expertise to the Accounts Chamber of the Russian Federation. Invited expert of the World Bank on pension issues (Armenia) and of the International Labour Organization on social protection issues (Tajikistan). Author of more than 90 publications on social issues.