This is to inform you about steps to be taken in light of your upcoming graduation from HSE University. Prior to graduation from HSE University, you must verify and provide necessary and missing personal data and a list of courses, which will be included in a state-approved diploma and supplements thereto (e.g., in a European supplement, in English).

In addition, we have prepared for you information about any overdue books to be returned to the HSE University Library, as well as outstanding tuition debt and/or overdue dormitory fees.

If you plan to take a postgraduation leave, you may submit your application in this section of your personal account.

6. Details to be Specified in Your Diploma

This is one of the most important stages when checking and approving the details that will be featured in your documents. The following parameters must be provided in your diploma supplement:

INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IN DIPLOMA SUPPLEMENT

- Information on mode of study
- Information on courses studied at another academic institution
- Information on fast-tracked studies
- Information for inclusion in degree certificate (optional courses)

Save selection

- Mode of study – if you study under a full-time mode, we recommend that you tick this field, because, if this information appears on your education documents, it will only benefit the status of the final document.
- Courses studied at other institutions – this parameter is only applicable to those students who have been transferred from other academic institutions, as well as participants in outgoing mobility programmes, who wish to specify courses studied at other universities in their diploma supplement (before their transfer/as part of mobility) as optional courses.

Important! If you do not belong to the aforementioned categories of students, please don't tick any of these fields and skip this section.

- Accelerated programmes – this parameter only applies to those students who have taken fast-track studies during their ongoing period of study at HSE University.

Important: If you do not belong to the above-mentioned categories of students, please don't tick any of these fields and skip this section.

- Other details to be included in your diploma (optional courses) – before you fill in this field, open a draft diploma on the next page and upload it to familiarize yourself with the template form. If you have completed any optional courses during your studies at HSE University, these courses will appear in the diploma supplement (page 3 of the template form) in the "Optional Courses" section. Students must decide at their own discretion, whether or not optional courses should be included in the diploma.

You can put in either the entire list of optional courses, or several optional courses at your own discretion, or none at all. After you decide, which optional courses should be included in the diploma supplement, enter the titles in the field "Other details for inclusion in your diploma (optional courses)", as follows:

If you include credits awarded for optional courses as part of your project work, specify "Projects (___ c.u.) in this field with the total number of credit units provided.

A list of courses and other elements of your degree programme will be specified in your diploma supplement.

7. Diploma Draft

In this section, two files are presented for review:

- a diploma draft;
- a diploma supplement draft.

What details should be checked in the diploma and in the diploma supplement:

1. Full name and date of birth – check the spelling and accuracy of the format;
2. Degree programme, degree level, mode of study, specialization, and field of study;
3. Term papers and projects – check your grades and the titles of each paper for any language mistakes (punctuation, spelling, capital letters, double quote marks, etc.);
4. Courses – check your grades for all courses. “No grade” is only awarded for theses, a thesis defence shall be held later. After the defence process, a grade for your thesis will be uploaded to the system and appear in your diploma;
5. Thesis – check the title of your thesis for any spelling or grammatical mistakes (the same procedure as for term papers and projects).

What details should be checked in your diploma supplement:

1. Last name and surname transliteration (as per details in your international passport);
2. Titles of your term papers in English;
3. Title of your thesis in English.

If there are any mistakes, specify this information in the relevant field under “Diploma Draft”.

Questions and Answers

Q.: Why does an “X” symbol appear in the diploma supplement in the field opposite term papers and projects?

A.: This symbol denotes a separate section and appears opposite the following sections: minors, term papers, projects, internships, and final state certification. Grades are provided below (inside the section), or in a separate block on page 2 of the template form, which follows the structure of the official letterhead (for terms papers and projects). Thus, this is not a mistake.

Q.: Why does not any information about project(s) and related grade(s) appear in my diploma supplement?

A.: The draft of a diploma supplement, as approved at HSE University, does not include information about project work. Instead of detailed information on each project completed by a student (the project title, credits, grades, etc.), a standard "Project Activity" section will be provided, as well as total credits for project work.
